Government Proceedings

Draft Durbar Note

Under the Scheme for the Admn & management of the properties & funds of the Indian Institute of Science the Govt Durbar nominates 2 representatives on the Court of Visitors, who hold office for 5 years

In June 1909 the Durbar nominated the Dewan for the time being, and Mr V P Madhava Rao C I E as their representatives on the Court

The term of these nominees expires on the 31st March 1914

It is necessary to make fresh nominations with effect from 1st April 1914

The subject has been considered by the Council, which is in favour of Mr M. V Narayandass the Dewan for the time being, being the nominated by the Durbar to act as their representatives on the Court of Visitors.

This recommendation may be graciously approved.

Orders thereon to be conveyed to the Dewan Sahib

3 2 14

I understand from the official papers available that Mr. V. P Madhava Rao took great interest in the success of Mr Tata's scheme from its inception & was strongly in favour of the location of the Institute in Bangalore & of giving it a liberal state aid
